

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

In the Episcopal Diocese of East Carolina

The Twenty-Third Sunday after Pentecost October 31, 2021

*Open doors. Open hearts. Open hands.
We will welcome all to live God's mission, teach Christ's love and transform our community by the power of the Holy Spirit.*

Introit

Beautiful Savior

F. Melius Christiansen

Fair are the meadows, fairer the woodlands, robed in flow'rs of blooming spring:
Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, he makes our sorrowing spirit sing.
Beautiful Savior, Lord of the nations! Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, praise, adoration, now and forever more be thine!

Processional Hymn 527

Singing songs of expectation

Ton-y-Botel

The Word of God

The Acclamation and Response

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the 8 am Service the Gloria can be found in the BCP on page 356.

Gloria

Glory be to God

Lauda Anima

Glory be to God in heaven, songs of joy and peace we bring,
thankful hearts and voices raising,
to creation's Lord we sing:
Lord we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
glory be to God our King.

Lamb of God, who on your shoulders bore the load of this world's sin,
only Son of God the Father,
you have brought us peace within:
Lord have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
you we praise with one accord;
none in heav'n or earth is like you,
only you are Christ the Lord
with the Father, and the Spirit, ever worshipped and adored.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and merciful God, it is only by your gift that your faithful people offer you true and laudable service: Grant that we may run without stumbling to obtain your heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people may be seated.

The First Reading: Deuteronomy 6: 1-9

Moses said: Now this is the commandment--the statutes and the ordinances--that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, so that you and your children and your children's children, may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119: 1-8

Beati immaculati

- 1 Happy are they whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord!
- 2 Happy are they who observe his decrees,
 and seek him with all their hearts.
- 3 Who never do any wrong,
 but always walk in his way.
- 4 You laid down your commandments, that we should fully keep them.
- 5 Oh, that my ways were made so direct that I might keep your statutes.
- 6 Then I should not be put to shame,
 when I regard all your commandments.
- 7 I will thank you with an unfeigned heart,
 when I have learned your righteous judgements
- 8 I will keep your statutes;
 do not utterly forsake me.

The Epistle Reading: Hebrews 9: 11-14

When Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation), he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 688

A mighty fortress is our God

Ein Feste Burg

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 12: 28-34

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One of the scribes came near and heard the Saducees disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, “Which commandment is the first of all?” Jesus answered, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.” Then the scribe said to him, “You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that ‘he is one, and besides him there is no other’; and ‘to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,’ and ‘to love one’s neighbor as oneself,’ — this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.” When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” After that no one dared to ask him any question.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Let us call upon God through Jesus Christ our great high priest, who offered himself for the sins of all, saying “Lord, have mercy.”

Intercessor: For this holy gathering, and for the people of God in every place. For Rob our bishop, Caleb our rector, and the ministry of the priesthood of all believers. Let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For Joseph our President, Roy our Governor, and for the election of local officials. For all peoples and their leaders, and for justice and equity in our city, country, and the world we share. Let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For our families and neighbors, for the towns, cities, and municipalities represented in this congregation. For the neighborhood surrounding St. Paul’s, that they might find in St. Paul’s a place of refuge for all people and all ages. For those who are with us online, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For the changing of seasons, abundant harvests, enough resources for all, and peaceful times. Let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For the sick and the suffering, especially those in our parish who need our prayers. For travelers and prisoners, and the dying and dead; especially Jimmy Black and Jay Hart. Let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

People: To you, O Lord.

A Collect for Stewardship (prayed together)

Almighty God, whose loving hand has given us all that we possess: Grant us gratitude and generosity, that being so transformed by your grace, we may honor you with our substance and be faithful stewards of your bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The Confession of Sin

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Announcements

Offertory Anthem

A Clare Benediction

John Rutter

May the Lord show his mercy upon you;
may the light of his presence be your guide:

May he guard you and uphold you;
may his spirit be ever by your side.

When you sleep, may his angels watch over you;
when you wake, may he fill you with his grace:

May you love him and serve him all your days,
then in heaven may you see his face.

Members of the congregation will present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord. If you would like to give electronically, please turn to page 16 for the QR code.

Presentation Hymn

Doxology with Alleluias

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below, alleluia, alleluia!

Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, in whom we are built up as living stones of a holy temple, that we might offer before you a sacrifice of praise and prayer which is holy and pleasing in your sight.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Land of Rest

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Fraction Anthem

Hymnal S169

Cantor or Choir
My flesh is food in - deed, and my blood is drink in - deed, says the Lord. All My Lord. Cantor or Choir Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood dwell in me and I in them. All My flesh is food in - deed, and my blood is drink in - deed, says the Lord.

Communion of the People

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Communion Anthem Make Me A Channel Of Your Peace Martin Neary

Make me a channel of your peace: where there is hatred let me bring your love, where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you. O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved, as to love with all my soul. Make me a channel of your peace: where there's despair in life let me bring hope, where there is darkness, only light, and where there's sadness, ever joy. Make me a channel of your peace: it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Communion Hymn 293 I sing a song of the saints of God Grand Isle

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

The people stand or kneel

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Processional Hymn 539 O Zion, haste, thy mission high fulfilling Tidings

Dismissal

Celebrant: Go in peace, to love and serve the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

About the Prayer List

Included in our prayers are the names of those for whom prayer has been requested by a parishioner or family member. The reason for being listed is kept confidential. If you would like to add yourself or someone else to the prayer list please reach out to Fr. Caleb Lee or make a prayer request online at our website, www.spechurch.com.

Hospitalization or Pastoral Issues

Please notify us if you or a family member is hospitalized and/or in need of a pastoral call or visit. Please speak with Fr. Caleb or call the church office at 910-762-4578.

Sharing Holy Communion

If illness prevents you or a loved one from joining us for regularly scheduled services, Fr. Caleb or a Lay Eucharistic Minister can share Holy Communion either in your home or at a health care facility. Please speak to Fr. Caleb or contact the church office at 910-762-4578.

St. Paul's Announcements & Upcoming Dates

October Adult Faith Formation

Today, Sunday, October 31:

SAINTS: from super-powers to super-service. As we prepare for All Saints Day, Jennie Callison will lead us in a discussion of modern day saints. How do we define modern saints? Who would we nominate? Would it be someone close by? Please join her today in the Parish Hall from 9:30-10:15am.

Live Streaming Help

Since early in the pandemic, St. Paul's has been live streaming our 10:30 Sunday services, other special services, Taize as well as music events, thanks to generous donations that allowed us to purchase our streaming equipment and the dedication of our Stream Team - Keith Calder, Bryce O'Dell, Cleve Callison and Bob Crafts.

Although we are now back to in-person worship, our live streaming continues to play an important role in allowing those who cannot be with us in person to participate remotely, as well as to expand our on-line presence.

Live streaming is rewarding, fun, the view from the balcony is great and we have refreshments! So if you're a bit jealous of this and you're not afraid of heights, there may be a spot for you on the Stream Team. If you use a computer and take videos with your phone you already have the basics. Ok, it is a bit more complicated than that, but if you're willing to learn then maybe this is for you. Curious? Tempting? Want to see for yourself? Let us know. Contact Bob Crafts craftsra@gmail.com

New children's worship bulletin

The Sunday Paper is a children's worship resource designed for elementary aged children to engage in the service using the same scripture story from the day. These short and simple cartoons invite coloring, reading, and learning while also asking age-appropriate questions for kids to ponder. There will be a new one each week, check them out in the worship boxes available in the back of the church (ask an usher if you don't know where to find them!).

Grillin' and Chillin' at Long Leaf Park

St. Paul's will be Grillin' and Chillin' at Shelter #5 at Long Leaf Park next Sunday, November 7 beginning at 3:30 pm. We will be "grillin'" some hot dogs and hamburgers, adding some simple (and COVID friendly) fare such as individually wrapped chips, sweets and drinks. We will be chillin' with some fun games like corn hole and sack races. We are looking forward to some singing (Fr. Lee is bringing his guitar, so maybe you should too?). And then we will end our day of celebrating all the Saints with Compline under God's glorious canopy of trees and stars. You may want to bring a chair, but there will be plenty of seating under the shelter.

Episcopal Youth Community (EYC) for 6th grade and older!

We're excited to offer EYC on Sunday mornings 9:30-10:15am in the Library for any students in 6th grade or older! EYC is exactly what it sounds like: youth learning about their faith in the Episcopal church through community and fellowship. EYC will be a casual hang-out with a variety of activities, learning, games, projects, and more! Join us on Sunday, November 21st for our kick-off where you can learn more about what EYC is, who your leaders will be, and how we will spend our time. Fr. Caleb will stop by to talk about the summer mission trip to Glory Ridge. Of course, snacks provided! This gathering is open to students and their parents. Regular EYC will begin December 5th. Questions? Contact Martha Whitesides, speckids@spechurch.com.

Youth Mission Trip to Appalachia July 3-8

Join St. Paul's for a mission trip to Marshall, NC where we'll stay at Glory Ridge. Father Caleb has a long-standing relationship with this ministry, having accompanied many groups of young people and adult chaperones to this holy place. Glory Ridge's rustic facilities have been built primarily by volunteers over the years and the camp has always emphasized a combination of 'work and worship'. Rising 7th graders through 12th grade are encouraged to register for this unforgettable and formative experience. Questions – talk to Caleb, Allen, or Cabe Lee.

Want to register? Go to <https://forms.gle/NyjEzKJwjDwvxQc46>

Family Promise

Wilmington Interfaith Hospitality Family Promise unites communities of faith to assist local, homeless families by providing emergency housing and dinner meals, so these families can establish a sound financial base and move into their own homes. St. Paul's has supported Family Promise for many years. To continue this support, St. Paul's needs a volunteer coordinator for 2022. At first, because of the pandemic, volunteers will only be needed to provide dinner meals for 2 nights every 3 months. In time, volunteers will serve as overnight hosts at the host church, Grace United Methodist Church, again for 2 nights every three months. Please consider volunteering so this tradition of support can continue. Please contact Steve Bucci 910-833-8121, Kathy Richardson, 910-915-7888 or Nancy Bray at 910-616-9697.

New Online Giving Platform

St. Paul's transitioned to Vanco Online, a new online giving solution. You can setup recurring donations or offer one-time gifts that seamlessly transfer to the church's accounting system. Your recurring gifts help maintain the donation consistency that keeps our church programs thriving! Please visit the church website at <https://spechurch.com/online-giving/> or you can use this QR code to access Vanco:

The Blessing of the Costumes

Blessings descend on costumes below, Send God upon us, your love for us show.
We celebrate today our blest Hallowe'en, When colors abound, yellow, orange, black and green.
Seasons are changing, nights will turn cool, Some dress as angels, some witches, some fools.

We also recall all the saints who have lived, Who offered themselves, who continue to give.
They show us examples to follow each day, How to be faithful, to live and to pray.
Names that we know, like Mark, Luke and John, Some have long past, some have just gone.

Mary and Francis, Peter and James, Clare and Augustine and some without names.
Bishops and kings, daughters and sons, Mothers and fathers, priests and some nuns.
Saints are among us- that's you and that's me, May God's name be worshipped on this Hallowe'en.

As we live out our lives as God's holy friends, Our tricking, our treating, our candying ends;
May we ever give thanks for your care over us, Your love and protection, an every day must.
So bless us, Lord Jesus and walk with us now, Protect us, surround us, before you, we bow.
All here among us, child, elder and teen, Worship you, Father, on this Hallowe'en.
