The First Reading: Isaiah 6: 1-8

Reader: A Reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name,
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me;
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord,
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the Lord,
that great is the glory of the Lord.
- 7 Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly;
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe;
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- 9 The Lord will make good his purpose for me;
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

The Epistle Reading: 1 Corinthians 15: 1-11

Reader: A Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them --though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 632

O Christ, the Word Incarnate

Munich

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 5: 1-11

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

|---|--|--|
| 1. We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began. We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came. | 2. Christ, who on the cross forsaken, like a lamb to slaughter led, suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead. We believe in Jesus risen, Heaven's king to rule and reign, to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again. | 3. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above: saints of God in one communion, One in holiness and love. So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end. |

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: As beloved children of God called to cast our nets into a deeper life of faith and service let us pray to God the Father saying, "Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of your calling."

Intercessor: Holy God, open our ears to your call, our eyes to your presence, our hearts to your love. Give us the courage to say, 'Here I am Lord, send me.' Strengthen our faith that we may be willing at all times to heed your call. We pray for all who are called to proclaim your glory, all who seek out the lost, uplift the fallen, and comfort the wounded. We pray for the outreach of the church to which we belong.
 Lord, as you have called us,

People: make us worthy of our calling.

Intercessor: God, as you are gracious to us, make us sensitive to the needs of others. We remember before you the world's poor, nations that are in debt, hungry and homeless peoples. We pray for all who work for relief organizations, and for emergency services, for all who give their lives to the care and service of others.
 Lord, as you have called us,

People: make us worthy of our calling.

Intercessor: We give you thanks for all who have encouraged us and built up our confidence. We pray for the young, that they may not be discouraged. We pray for all families that are in difficulty at this time. We give thanks for our homes and all that you have called us to do.
Lord, as you have called us,

People: make us worthy of our calling.

Intercessor: Lord of all compassion, we pray for the lost and the dispirited: for all who have lost hope or vision for those who have lost confidence in themselves and others, or in you. We pray for all who are anxious and fearful. We remember all whose lives are restricted by illness or circumstance.
Lord, as you have called us,

People: make us worthy of our calling.

Intercessor: Lord, you call us to share with you in the glory of your eternal Kingdom. We remember all who have served you faithfully and are now in life eternal.
Lord, as you have called us,

People: make us worthy of our calling.

Celebrant: Merciful God, hear the prayers of your people and strengthen us to do your will, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Confession of Sin

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution

The Peace

Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Offertory Anthem

As we gather at your Table

Skinner Chávez-Melo

|---|---|
| 1 As we gather at your table, as we listen to your word, help us know, O God, your presence; let our hearts and minds be stirred. Nourish us with sacred story till we claim it as our own; teach us through this holy banquet how to make Love's vict'ry known. | 2 Turn our worship into witness in the sacrament of life; send us forth to love and serve you, bringing peace where there is strife. Give us, Christ, your great compassion to forgive as you forgave; may we still behold your image in the world you died to save. |
|---|---|

3 Gracious Spirit, help us summon other guests to share that feast where triumphant love will welcome those who had been last and least.
There no more will envy blind us
nor will pride our peace destroy,
as we join with saints and angels to repeat the sounding joy.

Members of the congregation will present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord. Today's undesignated offerings will go toward The Rector's Discretionary Fund. If you would like to give electronically, please turn to page 13 for the QR code.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus S125

Holy, Holy, Holy

Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might,

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died,
Christ has risen,
Christ will come again;

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fourth Annual St. Paul's Lenten Reflections

The 2022 Lenten Reflections from St. Paul's Family and Friends shares reflections, meditations, and poetry from members of the St. Paul's family of faith. We will have one reflection each day during Lent to serve as a point of inspiration. Our 2022 Lenten Reflections will also be offered by the Diocese as a resource to churches throughout the Diocese of East Carolina. Reflections will be provided via email each day and made available as a printed booklet. Every St. Paul's family member or friend is invited to share one or more reflections for possible inclusion. Our theme this year is "A Time to Grow." As the second year of COVID presses down on us, Fr. Caleb suggested, "This year we need to observe an upbeat Lent, a time for people to allow God's freshness and vitality to come into their lives." Send your reflections early and often to hs2consulting@aol.com. Deadline for all reflections is Friday, February 19th. The goal is to have them available to the congregations Ash Wednesday, March 2. For writing tips and other information contact Royster Hedgepeth at the email above.
