The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Celebrant: Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading: 2 Kings 2: 1-2, 6-14

Reader: A Reading from Second Kings

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying,

"Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?" When he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went over.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 77: 1-2, 11-20

Voce mea ad Dominum

- 1 I will cry aloud to God;
I will cry aloud, and he will hear me.
- 2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
my hands were stretched out by night and did not tire;
I refused to be comforted.
- 11 I will remember the works of the LORD, and call to mind your wonders of old time.
- 12 I will meditate on all your acts and ponder your mighty deeds.
- 13 Your way, O God, is holy;
who is so great a god as our God?
- 14 You are the God who works wonders and have declared your power among the peoples.
- 15 By your strength you have redeemed your people,
the children of Jacob and Joseph.
- 16 The waters saw you, O God;
the waters saw you and trembled;
the very depths were shaken.
- 17 The clouds poured out water;
the skies thundered;
your arrows flashed to and fro;
- 18 The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
your lightnings lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.
- 19 Your way was in the sea,
and your paths in the great waters,
yet your footsteps were not seen.
- 20 You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

The Second Reading: Galatians 5: 1, 13-25

Reader: A Reading from Paul's letter to the Galatians

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gradual Hymn 603

When Christ was lifted from the earth

St. Botolph

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 9: 51-62

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Reverend Catherine Powell

Please stand.

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

- Celebrant: Holy and living God, in whose service is perfect freedom, come amongst us and show us the path of life as we pray, “Lord, graciously hear us.”
- Intercessor: Mighty God, we pray that all people may have the freedom to fulfill their vocations. Within your church may each find their ministry and calling. We pray for those who have recently begun to worship here, that we, your church may grow in holiness, in outreach and in number. We ask you to guide and direct all who preach the word and administer the sacrament, remembering Rob our bishop, Michael our presiding bishop, and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury. In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for St. Thomas in Windsor and St. Anne’s in Jacksonville and in the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of Sudan. We ask you to guide and direct all who go out in mission, especially our young people and leaders, as they work and worship at Glory Ridge this week.
Show us the path of life.
- People: Lord, graciously hear us.
- Intercessor: We ask that you will guide all who are called to govern, all who are in positions of authority or influence. We pray for the work of the United Nations and its peace-keeping forces. We pray for peace in Ukraine and around the world. We remember all who work in conservation and deal gently with the earth.
Show us the path of life.
- People: Lord, graciously hear us.
- Intercessor: We give thanks for all who have enriched our lives by their talents and gifts. Bless, O Lord, our homes and communities; make them places of gentleness and generosity, places of grace and goodness, places of holiness and hospitality, and begin now with us.
Show us the path of life.
- People: Lord, graciously hear us.
- Intercessor: We remember before you all who are restricted by poverty or oppression, all who cannot fulfil their calling due to illness or circumstance. We pray for all who are afraid to commit themselves to anyone. We pray for members of our faith community, friends and loved ones who are ill, especially (the intercessor reads the names of those in our parish that need our prayers).
Show us the path of life.
- People: Lord, graciously hear us.
- Intercessor: We rejoice with all your faithful people, and pray you will make us to be numbered with your saints in that glory which is everlasting. We pray for benefactors, for friends, and loved ones departed.
Show us the path of life.
- People: Lord, graciously hear us.
- Celebrant: Spirit of the living God, give us your joy and peace, that our lives may show the gifts of patience, kindness and generosity; that we may live in faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control by your power working within us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

BCP 361

- Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution.

The Peace

Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Offertory Anthem

Come, Christians Join to Sing

Carl F. Mueller

1 Come, Christians, join to sing
Alleluia! Amen!
loud praise to Christ our King;
Alleluia! Amen!
let all, with heart and voice,
before his throne rejoice;
praise is his gracious choice:
Alleluia! Amen!

2 Come, lift your hearts on high,
Alleluia! Amen!
let praises fill the sky;
Alleluia! Amen!
he is our guide and friend,
to us he'll condescend;
his love shall never end:
Alleluia! Amen!

3 Praise yet our Christ again;
Alleluia! Amen!
life shall not end the strain;
Alleluia! Amen!
on heaven's blissful shore,
his goodness we'll adore,
singing forevermore,
"Alleluia! Amen!"

*Members of the congregation will present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our great High Priest; in whom we are built up as living stones of a holy temple, that we might offer before you a sacrifice of praise and prayer which is holy and pleasing in your sight.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Mass of St. Thomas

16 f ff

Lord. Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again;

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Communion Anthem

Gracious Spirit, Dwell with Me

K. Lee Scott

Gracious Spirit, dwell with me! I would gracious be, help me now thy truth to see, I would be like thee. And with words that help and heal thy life in mine reveal; and with actions bold and meek for Christ my Saviour speak. Truthful Spirit dwell with me! I would truthful be, and with wisdom kind and clear thy life in mine reveal and with actions brotherly speak Christ's sincerity. Mighty Spirit dwell with me! I would holy be, separate from sin, I would and cherish all things good; and whatever I can be give him who gave me thee.

The congregation is invited to sing the communion hymns

BCP 365

The people stand or kneel.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Processional Hymn

The love of Jesus calls us

Aurelia

1 The love of Jesus calls us
Our joyous praise to sing;
Our deeply felt thanksgivings
We now together bring,
For all God's many blessings,
Unasked yet still received,
And for the generations,
Who faithfully believed.

2 The love of Jesus calls us,
That we may always be Companions on a journey,
Where all the world may see
That serving Christ is freedom
Which time does not destroy;
Where Christ's command is duty,
And every duty joy.

3 The love of Jesus calls us
to go where he would go,
to challenge all that limits,
to change, to learn, to grow,
to know that Christ has freed us,
that prisons are no more;
for those who seek his kingdom,
Christ opens every door.

4 The love of Jesus calls us
in swiftly changing days,
to be God's co-creators
in new and wondrous ways;
that God with men and women
may so transform the earth, that love and peace and justice
may give God's kingdom birth.

A Word from the Rector

Fine Arts Camp

Summer is a time at St. Paul's for a different pace. Many of us are taking some time away on vacation. I hope you find some time over the summer for rest and rejuvenation. Meanwhile, the mission of the church never stops. This past week we have been blessed with a multitude of children attending our Fine Arts Camp. I am grateful for the church staff, clergy, and volunteers who have worked so hard this week to make it happen.

Glory Ridge

Today, Allen and I will head to the mountains with 4 young people from St. Paul's to attend a week of worship, mission, formation, and lots of fun at one of my favorite places, Glory Ridge.

Over 50 years ago a young pastor was hiking through a wooded area that is now Glory Ridge. While walking that day he had a theophany, an encounter with God, and he heard children singing, playing, and laughing. Fifty years later, that vision has come to fruition in the sense that all who go to this thin place are reminded during their stay that they, too, are children of God. There is a simplicity to the week. The young people do not have their phones. The adults rarely use them. We eat our meals together in community. We are intentional about helping others and we worship authentically as the sun goes down and the fireflies come out.

Glory Ridge is a place that has shaped me and continues to shape me for ministry. It is a week of hard work, but for some reason I always come back rested and rejuvenated.

Thank you for your prayers this week as Zoe, Bennett, Katie Rose, and Cabe go to a thin place and offer themselves to Christ's service.

We will all return in time for our Independence Day Celebration on July 3rd.

Faithfully,

Caleb +

ST. PAUL'S WELCOMES YOU

We are glad you are with us today. If you are new to St. Paul's, please fill out a guest card and place it in the offering plate or give it to a greeter or an usher. Here are some quick facts that may be helpful.

Welcome: All are welcome to receive communion. If you prefer not to receive, you can remain seated, or come forward with your arms crossed to receive a blessing. If you are allergic to wheat products, gluten-free communion bread is available. Please let your request be known to the priest as you approach the altar rail.

Help: Please see any of our ushers for assistance when you enter the worship area.

Handicapped Parking: Our facility is handicapped accessible with multiple handicapped parking spaces available in the lot off Market Street and the lot off Princess Street. Handicap ramps serve both parking lots.

Live-Streamed: Our service is live-streamed on YouTube on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. Please subscribe to St. Paul's on YouTube to view live-streamed services and concerts.

Masks: All may, none must, some should.

Worship: St. Paul's follows the services outlined in the Book of Common Prayer 1979. The services include Old and New Testament readings, a reading from the Gospel, a sermon and traditional communion.

Children: All children are welcome and encouraged to attend any of our services.

Worship Kits: Bags and boxes are located in the back of the church for different ages to use in the pew, including our children's worship bulletin, The Sunday Paper. Please return when church is over.

Nursery: The nursery is open most Sundays from 9:15 a.m. to Noon upstairs in the Children's wing. The nursery is for infants to age 5.

Sunday School: Sunday School will return on Sunday, September 11 from 9:30-10:15 a.m. upstairs in the Children's Wing for ages 4-11.

Episcopal Youth Community (EYC): EYC will return on Sunday, September 11 from from 9:30-10:15 am in the library for 6th grade and older.

Welcome to St. Paul's!

We are delighted that you have joined us to worship and have expressed an interest in St. Paul's. Please fill out this card. You may drop it in the offering plate or give it to one of our greeters.
