The 1858 Circle

St. Paul's was established in 1858 by The Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, Bishop of North Carolina. Bishop Atkinson had a bold vision; he believed in an expansive, inclusive church, united in its mission to carry the Gospel to all people. For over 160 years, the people of St. Paul's have shared this vision and sustained the church through their faith and generosity.

The 1858 Circle was created to honor those who have continued this legacy of faith-filled generosity by remembering St. Paul's in their estate plans. Planning a gift now to benefit St. Paul's in the future is a meaningful way for individuals and families to continue their support of St. Paul's beyond their lifetimes. It is a confident expression of hope for the future and, for many, an important celebration of their relationship with God and the sacred work that is done through St. Paul's. A planned gift enables St. Paul's to build its Endowment Fund and more completely fulfill its mission by developing its ministries beyond what is possible through its annual operating funds.

We invite you to join The 1858 Circle and make a planned gift to St. Paul's. Like Bishop Atkinson, we believe the world needs disciples dedicated to serving one another with Open Doors, Open Hearts, and Open Hands. For more information on

Processional Hymn

Our Father, by whose servants

Aurelia

1 Our Father, by whose servants
Our house was built of old,
Whose hand hath crowned her children
With blessing manifold,
For Thine unfailing mercies
Far-strewn along our way,
With all who passed before us,
We praise Thy name today.

3 They reap not where they labored;
We reap what they have sown;
Our harvest may be garnered
By ages yet unknown.
The days of old have dowered us
With gifts beyond all praise;
Our Father, make us faithful
To serve the coming days.

2 The changeful years unresting
Their silent course have sped,
New members ever bringing
In members steps to tread;
And some are long forgotten,
Long spent their hopes and fears;
Safe rest they in Thy keeping,
Who changest not with years.

4 Before us and beside us,
Still holden in Thine hand
A cloud unseen of witness,
Our elder members stand:
One family unbroken,
We join, with one acclaim,
One heart, one voice uplifting
To glorify Thy name.

Psalm 99

Dominus regnabit

George Garrett

The Lord is King; let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

The Lord is great in Zion; *
 he is high above all peoples.
 Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *
 he is the Holy One.
 "O mighty King, lover of justice,
 you have established equity; *
 you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."
 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
 and fall down before his footstool; *
 he is the Holy One.
 Moses and Aaron among his priests,
 and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
 they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.
 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
 they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.
 O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
 you were a God who forgave them,
 yet punished them for their evil deeds.
 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
 and worship him upon his holy hill; *
 for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

Please stand.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

Please be seated.

THE LESSONS

The First Lesson: 2 Corinthians 3:7-18

Reader: A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Now if the ministry of death, chiselled in letters on stone tablets, came in glory so that the people of Israel could not gaze at Moses' face because of the glory of his face, a glory now set aside, how much more will the ministry of the Spirit come in glory? For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, much more does the ministry of justification abound in glory! Indeed, what once had glory has lost its glory because of the greater glory; for if what was set aside came through glory, much more has the permanent come in glory! Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing

Magnificat (choir)

Thomas Morley

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For He hath regarded: the lowliness of His handmaiden. For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed. For He that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is His Name. And His mercy is on them that fear Him: throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich He hath sent empty away. He rememb'ring His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel: as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed forever. (Luke 1:46-55)

The Second Lesson: Luke 9:18-27

Reader: A Reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

Once when Jesus was praying alone, with only the disciples near him, he asked them, 'Who do the crowds say that I am?' They answered, John the Baptist; but others, Elijah; and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has arisen.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered, 'The Messiah of God.' He sternly ordered and commanded them not to tell anyone, saying, 'The Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.' Then he said to them all, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it. What does it profit them if they gain the whole world, but lose or forfeit themselves? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words, of them the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.'

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Nunc dimittis (choir)

Thomas Morley

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people; to be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel. (Luke 2:29-32)

The Apostles' Creed (sung together)

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Anthem

O How Amiable are Thy Dwellings

Ralph Vaughan Williams

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. They will be alway praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home
